

Discipline Strategies that Work – Giving Freedom & Setting Boundaries

FAMILY matters!

Date: 25 February 2017 (Saturday)

Time: 9am – 12pm

Venue: Rivervale Primary School (6 Harmony Classroom, Level 3)

Synopsis:

Parental discipline and setting of boundaries are essential for children to become socially responsible, emotionally healthy and productive individuals.

This parenting talk incorporates interactions, role plays and discussions on the following:

- Myths about discipline
- Purpose of discipline
- Discipline and communication
- Discipline that produces results
- How to set realistic boundaries and to enforce them?

About the speaker:

Mr James Satchy is the principal consultant of Built 2 Last Training (a service provider for FamilyMatters@Schools, MSF) and the Executive Director of PCN Training. He is a Family Life Educator who has conducted numerous talks and training workshops on a wide range of topics such as parent-child relationship, character education, maximising children's potential, social and emotional learning for children, anger/stress management, computer addiction, etc.

James has a Masters in Social Science (Professional Counselling) and is a certified Behavioural Analyst (DISC) with various other qualifications related to Counselling Psychology and Education.

Note: Please be at the workshop 15 minutes before 9am for registration.

Reply Slip

Family Matters@School:

Discipline Strategies that Work – Giving Freedom & Setting Boundaries

Please tick Able to attend Able to attend with spouse Unable to attend

Name of Child: _____

Class: _____

Name of Parent: _____

Contact: _____

Email: _____

Please place the reply slip in the white box at the security post by 20 Feb 2017.